Note: Where the deceased was not normally resident within the Forest of Dean District Council administrative area then fees shown in items 1 – 3 are increased as described below.

Where immediately prior to death a person has lived for more than six months outside of the FODDC administrative area the fees as outlined in items 1 – 3 will be doubled except where the deceased whilst living within the mentioned area purchased an Exclusive Right of Burial.

If the deceased lived in the FODDC administrative area for a period of 5 years or more, prior to moving to reside in a residential or nursing home outside of the FODDC administrative area for a period of up to two years then the fees outlined in items 1 - 3 will not be subject to double fees.

Funeral Directors/Undertakers must give the relevant facts if they can, particularly Plot/Exclusive Rights information. A certificate will have been issued at the time of such purchase. CEM 1 forms must be sent to the Administrative Officer prior to interment.
